01/31/2019	Case management conference and initial intervention event held. All parties appeared through counsel. Plaintiffs contend that (1) Bourne's general bylaw regarding non-medical cannabis facilities violates the Zoning Act, and (2) the Town's selectmen improperly have refused to negotiate a "host community agreement" (the "HCA") with Plaintiffs. The Town argues that its general bylaw is lawful and that, in fact, one of the Plaintiffs terminated negotiations over the HCA. The Court questioned its subject-matter jurisdiction over the HCA issue. Accordingly, unless Plaintiffs sooner dismiss their HCA-related claims, the Court ORDERS Plaintiffs to file by February 14, 2019 a memorandum explaining why the Land Court has subject-matter jurisdiction to over Plaintiffs' HCA issues. The Court ORDERS the Town to file within fourteen days of receipt of Plaintiffs' memorandum any responsive memorandum. All parties assent to receiving notice from the Court via electronic mail instead of regular mail. SO ORDERED. Notice of Docket Entry sent to parties Judge: Vhay, Hon. Michael D

02/20/2019	The Court has received Plaintiffs' Motion to Dismiss Counts III and IV of their Complaint. The Court ORDERS any party who opposes that motion to file its opposition no later than March 1, 2019. The Court also has received Plaintiffs' Motion for Protective Order. The Court DENIES that motion, without prejudice, as the motion doesn't comply with Land Court Rule 7. Plaintiffs may renew the motion once they have filed the certificate described in Rule 7. 03/04/2019	Defendants' Opposition to Plaintiffs' Motion to Dismiss Counts III and IV filed.
03/04/2019	Defendants' Opposition to Plaintiffs' Motion for Protective Order filed.
03/06/2019	The Court has received Plaintiffs' Motion to Dismiss Counts III and IV of their complaint. The Court DENIES the motion. Counts III and IV seek a declaratory judgment and a writ of mandamus in connection with an alleged refusal by the defendant Bourne selectmen to enter into a "host community agreement" with Plaintiffs under G.L. c. 94G, sec. 3. At the case-management conference in this matter, the Court questioned its subject-matter jurisdiction over Counts III and IV. The Court gave Plaintiffs until February 14, 2019 to either dismiss the Counts or submit a memorandum explaining why the Court had subject-matter jurisdiction over them. Plaintiffs chose the former course, and asked that the Court to dismiss Counts III and IV without prejudice. The Bourne Selectmen oppose the motion: having answered Plaintiffs complaint, the Selectmen want their day in court or a dismissal with prejudice. See Rule 41(a)(2), Mass. R. Civ. P. Where a complaint in the Land Court presents some claims that are within the Court's jurisdiction (for example, Counts I and II of Plaintiffs' complaint), and others that aren't (like Counts III and IV), "the court should not dismiss the case out of hand; rather, 'the proper procedure is for the judge to ask the Chief Administrative Justice to transfer the case, or the judge, or both, to the appropriate department of the Trial Court.'" Arno v. Commonwealth, 457 Mass. 434, 446 (2010), quoting Konstantopoulous v. Whately, 384 Mass. 123, 129 (1981). See also Sullivan v. Lawlis, 93 Mass. App. Ct. 409, 416 (2018) (same). Since the Selectmen demand a resolution of Counts III and IV on the merits, this Court will request either a transfer of this case to the Barnstable Superior Court (with a justice of the Superior Court being designated a justice of this Court for purposes of deciding Count I, which is within this Court's exclusive jurisdiction) or designation of a justice of this Court as a justice of the Superior Court for purposes of hearing Counts III and IV. Pending a ruling on this Court's request for transfer or interdepartmental assignment, the Court STAYS all action on Counts III and IV of the Complaint, including any discovery relating solely to Counts III and IV. The Court otherwise ORDERS the parties to complete all discovery (fact and expert) on Plaintiffs' claims in Counts I and II by May 3, 2019. (Plaintiffs also have filed a motion for a protective order. To the extent that the motion seeks to prevent discovery on issues relating to Counts I and II, the motion is DENIED, but any discovery relating solely to Counts III and IV is nonetheless stayed.) SO ORDERED. Notice of Docket Entry sent to parties Judge: Vhay, Hon. Michael D
